CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

PROGRAMME 'SINBAD THE SAILOR', DECEMBER 1990

Ladies, Gentlemen and Children,

May I bid you a very warm welcome once again to our Annual Family Pantomime. This year we have decided to turn our attention to a nautical theme as we re-tell the fabulous adventures of the legendary Sinbad and his various exploits. The story is aimed at children, for we believe that even our more mature patrons are also young at heart. Of course, any pantomime must contain all the traditional ingredients, and we hope that you will feel that we have not let you down. When the curtain finally falls on Wednesday evening we shall be turning our attention to our Spring production of 'Fiddler on the Roof', which we will be staging just down the road at the Princes Theatre in May, and we hope most sincerely that we can rely upon your support on that occasion also. Incidentally, if you feel that you would like to be part of our team for any of our future productions we would be delighted to make you welcome. However, for now, Yo heave ho, avast me hearties and let's go with Sinbad.

Very sincerely,

KEN ROWLANDS (Chairman)
