CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Ladies, Gentlemen and Boys & Girls,

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you to our Annual Pantomime, we hope you will enjoy watching it as much as we enjoy presenting it for you.

Ever thought of joining us?

Rehearsals for a show mean a lot of work and commitment but are a lot of fun and we are very friendly.

The week after 'Puss in Boots' closes we go into rehearsal for 'The King and I' which we present at the Princes Theatre from 12 - 16th May, 1992 —hope to see you there!

Enjoy the show, may 1992 be good for you.

GOING BACK IN TIME — WITH PANTOMIME !

The old Christmas pantomime or harlequinade as an essentially British entertainment was first introduced by John Weaver (1673-1760) a dancing master from Shrewsbury in 1702.

It is now usually based on a nursery tale such as 'Puss in Boots' enlivened by catchy songs, pretty chorus girls and considerable buffoonery.

In the story of Puss a clever cat who is given special powers by the good fairy secures a fortune and a Royal partner for his Master, Stephen the mill owners son who passes as the Marquis of Carrabas.
